

Footprints in the snow.

Take a walk in your garden or near your house and look at the snow. Make sure to dress up warm and be very careful.

Can you see any footprints in the snow? Think about what sort of animal made those footprints and look at where they were going.

In the table below draw the footprints you saw and write which animal you think made them.
